THE SOCIETY FOR THE

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ARCHAEOLOGY

The Society for the American Journal of Archaeology was founded in the autumn of 1989 in order to expand the size and scope of the Archaeological Institute of America's official journal, to make possible the publication within a year of their submission of all articles accepted by the editors, and to build AJA's endowment to insure the future financial health of the journal.

Contributions to the Society are welcome in any amount and are tax deductible according to law. All donors of $100 or more are recognized in the Bulletin of the Archaeological Institute of America and in the AIA's newsletter Sine Qua Non. Contributors of $250 or more (Contributors, $250; Sponsors, $500) are also listed on the inside back cover of the next four quarterly issues of AJA and donors of $1,000 or more (Friends, $1,000; Patrons, $2,500; Benefactors, $5,000) receive in addition all the benefits of Friends of the Archaeological Institute of America.

Individuals and institutions wishing to join the Society for the American Journal of Archaeology should send their checks, payable to "Archaeological Institute of America" and designated for the "Society for the AJA," to American Journal of Archaeology, c/o Archaeological Institute of America, 675 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215-1401 (tel. 617-353-9364, fax 617-353-6550).
